CELERY.*15,000 Dozen Bunches off Nine Acres.

Mr. W. M. Farmer of this place is probably the most successful celery grower on a small scale in the west. He has now, on his place just east of town, nine acres of the choicest celery to be found anywhere and while not as large as the California and Colorado products with which it has to compete, is much finer in flavor. Indeed it is conceded that Pecos Valley celery cannot be excelled for flavor. The product of this locality is shipped by express in boxes somewhat resembling apple boxes at a special rate, yet outside of a radius of say 600 miles, a grower here cannot compete with other localities because of the high rate charged. Most of the celery raised here is marketed in Texas and Oklahoma where it holds first place. This year off the small field put in by Mr. Farmer he will raise 10,000 dozen bunches which will be marketed between now and March 1. The season is usually about five months extending from October to March. As a profitable industry celery culture is par excellence for this Valley as no parasites of any kind prey upon it and there are always large returns for a little work and small investment.—Roswell Register.

Rev. Irl R Hicks is Not Dead.

Notwithstanding a widely current rumor that the Rev. Irl R. Hicks was dead, he never was in better health, and never did a harder or more successful year's work than that just closing. He has just completed his large and splendid Almanac for 1902 and, with his staff of able helpers, has brought his journal, Word AND Works, justly forward into international reputation. For a quarter of a century Mr. Hicks has grown in reputation and usefulness as the people's astronomer, and forecaster of storms and the forecaster of coming seasons. Never were his weather forecasts so sought after as now, his timely warning of a serious drought this year having saved the people from loss and suffering. Millions of bushels of wheat were harvested through his advice to plant crops that would mature early. The American people will certainly stand by Prof. Hicks, when it costs them so little and the benefits are so great. His fine Almanac of 200 pages is only 25c and his splendid family journal is only one dollar a year including the Almanac. Send to Word AND Works Pub. Co., 2201 Locust St., St. Louis, Mo.
